Dear Fiona:

I am writing to request that the proposed Franklin College prefix FCAS (Franklin College of Arts and Sciences) for interdisciplinary courses be changed to FCID (Franklin College Inter-Disciplinary). I believe that adoption of such a prefix by the college would foster the development of inter/multidisciplinary courses on campus and provide an important complement to existing initiatives to achieve this campus-wide objective. The FCID prefix would avoid creating confusion between courses offered by Arts and Sciences and by the College of Family & Consumer Sciences.

Thank you for considering this proposal. If you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Hugh Ruppensburg
Sr. Associate Dean
