The University Curriculum Committee met on March 26, 2004, at 3:00 p.m. in 218 Meigs Hall. Minutes of the January 9, 2004, meeting were approved.

The committee approved the following proposals with a few minor changes in wording. These proposals will be forwarded to the Executive Committee of University Council for consideration:

- Proposal for a Regenerative Bioscience Center
- Proposal for an Institute in Native American Studies
- Proposal for an Undergraduate Certificate in Native American Studies
- Proposal for a Graduate Certificate in Native American Studies
- Proposal for a major in Chinese Language and Literature under the A.B. degree
- Proposal for a Graduate Certificate in Mathematics Education
- Proposal for dual degrees: between Foreign Language Education (B.S.Ed.) and French (A.B.), German (A.B.), Spanish (A.B.), and Latin (A.B.)
- Proposal to terminate the major in Instructional Technology under the Ed.D.
- Proposal to terminate the major in Exercise Science under the Ed.D.
- Proposal to terminate the area of study in Rehabilitation Counseling under the M.A. in Education and to terminate the major in Rehabilitation Counseling under the M.Ed.

The committee discussed a proposed change in the placement policy for French courses. After much discussion, the proposal was tabled.

The committee approved a request to add GEOG 2011-2011L to Area D III of the Core Curriculum. This request will be forwarded to the Board of Regents Committee on General Education for consideration.

The committee approved a new prefix, MAND, Manding Language of West Africa.

The committee considered two versions of a write-in course policy. After much discussion, the committee voted to endorse the write-in course policy that was approved by the Educational Affairs Committee and has been submitted to the Executive Committee of University Council.

The committee elected Dr. Jan Hathcote as chair of the University Curriculum Committee for the 2004-2005 academic year.

Dr. McCombs suggested that there was enough interest in the issue of internship courses that a subcommittee should be established to consider the issue. Dr. Vencill will ask for volunteers to serve on the subcommittee.

The meeting adjourned at 4:25 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

William K. Vencill, Chair
University Curriculum Committee
