

Attachment A

Dissolution of Schools

---

The University of Georgia

---

College of Education
Office of the Dean

May 11, 2004

TO: University Curriculum Systems

FROM:  Louis A. Castenell, Jr., Dean
College of Education

SUBJECT: Involuntary Dissolution of the School of Teacher Education

The faculty in the School of Teacher Education voted on a motion to dissolve the School. On May 7, 2004 voting concluded. The result of that vote was:

Yes 15

No 29

This should be considered an involuntary dissolution vote for the purpose of reorganizing the College of Education.

LAC:ct

---

The University of Georgia

---

College of Education
Office of the Dean

May 11, 2004

TO: University Curriculum Committee

FROM:  Louis A. Castenell, Jr., Dean
College of Education

SUBJECT: Dissolution of the School of Professional Studies

Please consider this request from the School of Professional Studies to voluntarily dissolve. On May 7, 2004 voting concluded on the motion to dissolve the school. The result of that vote was:

Yes 30

No 14

This dissolution vote is based on a recommendation for reorganization of the College of Education.

LAC:ct

---

The University of Georgia

---

College of Education
Office of the Dean

May 11, 2004

TO: University Curriculum Systems

FROM:  Louis A. Castenell, Jr., Dean
College of Education

SUBJECT: Dissolution of the School of Leadership and Lifelong Learning

Please consider this request from the School of Leadership and Lifelong Learning to voluntarily dissolve. On May 7, 2004 voting concluded on the motion to dissolve the school. The result of that vote was:

Yes 17

No 14

This dissolution vote is based on a recommendation for reorganization of the College of Education.

LAC:ct

---

The University of Georgia

---

College of Education
Office of the Dean

May 11, 2004

TO: University Curriculum Systems

FROM:  Louis A. Castenell, Jr., Dean
College of Education

SUBJECT: Dissolution of the School of Health and Human Performance

Please consider this request from the School of Health and Human Performance to voluntarily dissolve. On May 7, 2004 voting concluded on the motion to dissolve the school. The result of that vote was:

Yes 13

No 5

This dissolution vote is based on a recommendation for reorganization of the College of Education.

LAC:ct