RE: Institute for European Studies

Dear Dr. Dunn:

On the basis of our review, Provost Holbrook eliminated university funding for the Institute for European Studies in 2002. Its director, Professor Mihai Spariousu returned to his academic unit full time. There are no other faculty affiliated with the Institute who were affected by the decision.

At the time of funding was eliminated, we did not want to formally terminate this Institute because we thought that one day we might want to reactivate it. However, given the budget cuts the University has experienced, it is not feasible to do so. Therefore, I respectfully request that this Institute be formally terminated.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Lusk
Associate Provost
