The Cultural Diversity Subcommittee of the University Curriculum Committee met on February 24, 2023, at 11:00 a.m. via Zoom.

The subcommittee unanimously approved the minutes of the September 26, 2022 meeting.

The following courses were unanimously approved by the subcommittee to satisfy the Cultural Diversity Requirement for the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences:

- ENGL(AFAM) 4470, Eighteenth Century Literature and the Black Atlantic
- GRMN 4200, The Language and Literature of the German-American Experience
- HIST 3095, History of Southern Food
- HIST(AFAM)(WMST) 3103, African American Women's History
- RELI 2012, Asian Religions in America
- RELI 2012H, Asian Religions in America (Honors)

The subcommittee unanimously denied HIST 3610, Imperialism in East Asia and recommends revision and resubmission to clearly link the connection to Cultural Diversity.

The meeting adjourned at 11:25 a.m.
