RE: Cultural Diversity Implementation: School of Social Work

cc: Bonnie Yegidis, Dean
Katheryn Davis, BSW Program Director

As requested, the School of Social Work implementation plan for the University Cultural Diversity Requirement is attached. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about this material. Thank you.

The BSW program has had a cultural diversity requirement in place for about 20 years. The present requirement calls for students to demonstrate the ability to:

A. Understand intra and intercultural diversity, with particular emphasis on the effects of oppression on African Americans, as evidenced by a grade of B or above in a course which includes substantive multicultural content and is approved by the BSW program.

B. Understand contemporary issues and concerns about the gendered roles of men and women, as evidenced by a grade of B or above in a course which includes substantive content on gender and is approved by the BSW program.

The BSW program will revisit the cultural diversity requirement by asking the College Social Work Association to conduct a consumer evaluation of this requirement's relevance and effectiveness.

RE: Cultural Diversity Requirement

cc: Dean Bonnie Yegidis
Dr. Paul Ammons, BSW Program Director

In response to the inquiry from the University Curriculum Committee on Cultural Diversity, I am providing some additional information about the implementation in our School. All students are required to complete a course dealing with intra and inter cultural diversity, and a second course on gendered roles of men and women. Students must earn a "B" or higher grade in both courses to satisfactorily complete this requirement. These courses are selected from a menu that includes courses from around the University. A list of courses is attached. Students must select one from the Women's Studies list and one from the multicultural list.

If you have further questions about the School of Social Work requirements, please feel free to contact Dr. Paul Ammons, BSW Program Director, or me. Thank you.
